

ROBERTO VIERNES

MASTER SOMMELIER

Roberto Viernes achieved the coveted title of Master Sommelier in 2005. He travels extensively to classic wine growing regions around the world to gain an even better understanding of wine and is also active in teaching courses with the Court of Master Sommeliers and has been a judge at the prestigious National Sake Evaluation four separate years.

He is currently Associate State Manager for Ste. Michelle Wine Estates managing a portfolio of almost 40 different world class wineries and wine brands from Washington State, Oregon, California, New Zealand, Champagne and Italy. He is a contributing writer for HI Luxury Magazine. Roberto also launched his first wine FIL Pinot Noir with the stellar 2015 vintage. This is a project grown in the Willamette Valley.
